1 pretrial order, including the contested issues of law and fact, the necessary exhibits, the 2 necessary witnesses, and the length of the trial. As such, the parties agree that judicial economy 3 and good cause support extending the current deadline for the proposed joint pretrial order until 4 30 days after the Court rules on NDOC's Motion for Reconsideration. 5 Additionally, good cause also exists for this stipulated extension due to the fact that the 6 undersigned counsel for NDOC recently returned from 30 days of paternity leave ending on 7 April 24, 2020, and did not have the benefit of the full 30 day period to prepare the proposed 8 joint pretrial order, as set forth in the Court's April 8, 2020, Order. Furthermore, the ability of 9 the undersigned counsel for NDOC to prepare the proposed joint pretrial order has been 10 hindered by the current pandemic, including the Governor's stay at home order. 11 DATED this 6th day of May 2020. 12 AARON D.
